

State Representative
Jeff Leach
Dist. 67
Rotunda Report

June 1, 2015

Dear Friends,

As I write to you from Austin on the final day of the 84th Legislative Session, I want to take this last opportunity to thank you for allowing me the opportunity to serve you and your families in the Texas House of Representatives. Working in the Texas State Capitol and advocating on your behalf is an immense honor and blessing – and is a responsibility that I do not take lightly.

I am happy to report that we have had a remarkably successful legislative session. Over the past 140 days, we have focused on and tackled the challenges facing our rapidly growing state. We passed a fiscally conservative budget that prioritizes the core functions of government, including public and higher education, transportation and border security, among others. We have reformed our state's contracting processes and have taken great strides to ensure that your government is more open, honest and transparent. We have fought for legislation safeguarding our most fundamental rights – including protecting the right to life, the protection of religious liberties and the protection of our Second Amendment rights. We passed sensible and smart criminal justice laws, have continued to reform public education, and worked diligently to provide nearly $4 billion in substantial tax relief. Bottom line: the 84th Legislative Session has seen us tackle a bold, conservative agenda, and has been one that all Texans can be proud of.

I am looking forward to returning home to my family and friends and to you, the people that I am blessed and honored to serve. Over the course of the next several weeks I will be traveling throughout District 67 to share with you more about what we accomplished during the legislative session and, more importantly – listen to you and the people I am elected to serve.

Until then, I encourage you to check my website for periodic updates and as always, contact my office if there is anything I or my staff may assist you with. We stand ready to serve you and look forward to hearing from you soon.

Thank you again for the opportunity to serve as your State Representative. God Bless you, and God Bless Texas.
